

Access Center of San Diego
San Diego, CA

$4,816

To establish a Senior Advocacy Program designed to provide vital independent living information and referral services to aging individuals with disabilities.

Adult Day Services
of Orange County
Costa Mesa, CA

$3,000

To develop an Adult Activities Center with targeted programming for people with early stage Alzheimer's disease.

Alzheimer's Association
Los Angeles Chapter
Los Angeles, CA

$162,169

To develop and operate a Long-distance Caregivers Project with four components (1) website, (2) trained family consultant, (3) telephone legal consultations, and (4) community service resource guide, to improve care of elders who may live some distance from their families.

Alzheimer's Association
Utah Chapter
Salt Lake City, UT

$25,000

To provide a caregiver conference and professional training for assisted living and nursing home care providers in Utah.

American Parkinson Disease Association, Inc.
Los Angeles, CA

$2,500

To develop a Los Angeles Area Information and Referral Center to provide medical, educational or supportive resources.

American Society on Aging
San Francisco, CA

$4,500

To support a professional education series for senior service practitioners through the American Society on Aging annual meeting.

American Society on Aging
San Francisco, CA

$1,400

To support the New Ventures in Leadership training program of senior service professions working in ethnic communities.

Assistance League of Southern California
Hollywood, CA

$5,000

To provide scholarships for low-income participants in the Adult Day Care Program for the frail elderly.

Bernal Heights
Neighborhood Center
San Francisco, CA

$4,000

To expand the services of the Neighborhood Elders Support Team (NEST) model of community-based care for low-income elders.

Bet Tzedek
Los Angeles, CA

$3,500

To support the El Portal Latino Alzheimer's Project, a multi-agency, community-based collaborative that serves the multiple medical, legal, and social services needs of Latino families who care for elderly relatives with Alzheimer's disease or other forms of dementia.

California Association for Adult Day Services
Sacramento, CA

$61,404

To create a comprehensive statewide directory of all levels of adult day services available in California for print and Internet distribution.

California State University
Fullerton, CA

$32,638

To develop and implement a community-based Balance Assessment and Mobility Enhancement Program to prevent falls in the elderly.

California State University
Long Beach Foundation
Long Beach, CA

$7,000

To establish a SeniorNet computer based learning center at the CSULB Senior University intended to give seniors the skills to create technology-based social networks.

California State University
Long Beach Foundation
Long Beach, CA

$2,570

To produce and distribute Food Service Education and Training Videos for senior nutrition program providers.

California State University
Long Beach Foundation
Long Beach, CA

$290,000

To develop a management training program in long-term care through the Center for Health Care Innovation at CSULB.

Catholic Community Services of Utah

Salt Lake City, UT

$1,000

To support the Ministry with Older Adults, which provides care management, transportation and volunteer support services for frail elders.

Center for Healthy Aging
Santa Monica, CA

$6,797

To develop and evaluate a workplace focused family caregiver training and support program, "When Mother Calls."

Center for the Partially Sighted
Los Angeles, CA

$6,000

To support an Independent Living Skills Program which provides individualized rehabilitation training in adaptive living techniques for elders with visual impairments.

City of Long Beach
Long Beach, CA

$8,193

To establish "Senior Links to Independent Living" a two-year pilot project to promote early identification and referral of at-risk seniors by community gatekeepers in order to link those seniors with resources and promote independent living.

Community Care Ukiah, CA

$28,700

To provide case management and legal services for elders in the rural area of Lake County.

Goldman Institute on Aging
San Francisco, CA

$5,000

To support the Friendship Line Expansion Project, a help line and suicide prevention service for older adults in the San Francisco Bay Area who may be struggling with depression, substance abuse, or isolation.

Huntington Memorial Hospital
Pasadena, CA

$83,780

To develop a comprehensive model of caregiver resources, caregiver training workshops and caregiver support services.

International City Theatre
Long Beach, CA

$7,237

To provide outreach and improved accessibility for low income seniors in the greater Long Beach community.

Jewish Family and Children's Service

Long Beach, CA

$5,333

To implement a Physician Liaison Program, which provides short-term case management and care coordination for frail elders in the greater Long Beach community.

Jewish Family Services of Salt Lake City

Salt Lake City, UT

$2,500

To provide in-home case management services to prevent premature institutionalization of the frail elderly in Utah.

Little Tokyo Service Center, Inc.

Los Angeles, CA

$5,900

To continue support for a program reaching isolated or homebound seniors in the Japanese American community.

Long Term Care Services of Ventura County, Inc.

Ventura, CA

$1,000

To support training and recruitment efforts for the Long Term Care Ombudsman Program.

Los Amigos Research and Education Institute Inc.
Downey, CA

$7,350

To expand the Rancho Los Amigos National Rehabilitation Center's Alzheimer's Adult Day Services to include a new Adult Day Health Care Program.

Los Angeles Free Clinic
Los Angeles, CA

$3,000

To provide dental services and a case management program for low-income elders.

Monterey County Ombudsman, Inc.
Monterey, CA

$2,500

To support the Little Ombuddies Intergeneration Health Program bringing school children into nursing homes for recreational activities with the elders.

National Committee for the Prevention of Elder Abuse
Worcester, MA

$9,639

To provide national training and technical assistance on preventing and intervening in elder abuse and financial exploitation of the elderly.

National Council of Jewish Women
Los Angeles, CA

$1,000

To develop and distribute a resource guide for family caregivers of the elderly.

National PACE Association
San Francisco, CA

$5,000

To develop a tool to measure elderly satisfaction with quality of care in the Program for All-inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE).

National Public Radio
Washington, DC

$5,000

To support expanded coverage of aging-related issues on National Public Radio news programming.

Olive View-UCLA Medical Center Foundation
Sylmar, CA

$1,747

To support the Arthritis Empowerment Program/Programa Tomando El Dominio Sobre Le Artritis, a health education program to improve the quality of life for Spanish speaking patients with arthritis in the northeast San Fernando Valley.

Partners in Care Foundation
Burbank, CA

$5,000

To provide a planning grant for the development of Centers of Excellence for geriatric social work education and to strengthen aging curriculum in the four participating universities - CSULA, CSULB, UCLA, and USC.

Partners in Care Foundation
Burbank, CA
$154,423
To develop community based Centers of Excellence for Geriatric Social Work Education at key service agencies in the region and to strengthen aging curriculum in the four participating universities - CSULA, CSULB, UCLA, and USC.

Rand Corporation
Santa Monica, CA
$550,000
To support the National MediCaring Demonstration Project for providing excellent care and services to those at the end of life, and to learn how a sustainable system of reliably high-value care could be financed, with the ultimate goal of changing Medicare benefits for those in the last phase of life.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
Princeton, NJ
$44,100
To support the California Gerontology Program designed to meet the needs of elderly print-disabled Californians for full and equal access to forms and information regarding advance directives and issues of aging.

Redwood Senior Homes and Services Corporation
Escondido, CA
$5,355
To support the financial abuse specialist team, whose mission is to prevent and intervene in abuse of the elderly in San Diego County.

Saint Joseph Center
Venice, CA
$1,000
To support the Senior Outreach Program for homeless and homebound elders.

Saint Mary Medical Center Foundation
Long Beach, CA
$50,000
To support the Families in Good Health diabetes screening and education program for Long Beach's Latino and Southeast Asian Communities.

Single Room Occupancy Housing Corporation, Inc.
Los Angeles, CA
$26,150
To support Project Hotel Alert, a case management service for frail elders living in SRO housing in the "Skid Row" area of Los Angeles.

Southeast Area Social Services
Funding Authority
Whittier, CA
$58,573
To support the Prescription Intervention and Lifelong Learning (PILL) program to assist homebound elders in managing their medications.

Southern California
Presbyterian Homes
Glendale, CA
$140,381
To develop a Money Management and Case Management Service program for seniors in retirement homes in partnership with St. Barnabas Senior Services.

The Amyotrophic Lateral
Sclerosis Association
Agoura Hills, CA
$7,500
To establish a network of case managers and an innovative plan to provide continuity of care for ALS patients and their families.

The Tides Foundation/Center
San Francisco, CA
$1,250
To support a conference on the health consequences of civil unrest on vulnerable populations.

University of California, Irvine
Irvine, CA
$6,000
To conduct a survey of conventional and complementary healthcare use in Orange County, California.

University of California, Irvine
Irvine, CA
$359,801
To create an interdisciplinary team of trained medical experts in elder and dependent adult abuse.

University of California
Los Angeles
Los Angeles, CA
$3,200
To develop and distribute a resource directory for elders and their caregivers in Los Angeles.

University of Southern California
Los Angeles, CA
$357,935
To establish a National Resource Center on Supportive Housing and Home Modifications whose mission is to make supportive housing and home modification an integral component of successful aging, long-term care, preventive health, and elder-friendly communities.

Villa Esperanza Pasadena, CA
$45,000
To establish an Integrated Adult Day Health Care Center serving the elderly and those aging with a developmental disability.

Visiting Nurse Service of New York
New York, NY
$7,500
To support a national model project to develop a set of benchmarks or indicators to identify elder friendly communities that welcome and support individuals who wish to age in place.

Volunteers of America of Los Angeles
Los Angeles, CA
$2,000
To support the expansion of the Cause for Paws: A Senior Companion Pet Program to help reduce loneliness and isolation of low-income seniors.

Young at Heart Project
Santa Cruz, CA
$1,000
To support a volunteer program bringing live music performances into nursing homes and senior residential facilities.

Zen Hospice Project
San Francisco, CA
$5,000
To develop public education and professional training programs on death and the dying process.