

Adult Day Services of Orange County
Costa Mesa, CA

$63,000

To provide continued support of the Adult Activities Center which offers targeted programming for people with early stage Alzheimer's disease.

Alzheimer's Association
Chicago, IL

$50,000

To support the Medicare Advocacy Project which works to assure appropriate insurance coverage and care for people with Alzheimer's disease.

American Parkinson Disease Association, Inc.
Los Angeles, CA

$30,000

To develop an Information and Referral Center to provide medical, educational or supportive resources in Orange County, CA.

American Society on Aging
San Francisco, CA

$45,000

To support professional education programs for senior service practitioners through the American Society on Aging and The National Council on The Aging 2001 Joint Conference.

California Health Advocates
Santa Ana, CA

$78,000

To support a Medicare State-based Training and Resources Project which will use existing, trusted, and effective support networks to provide accurate and up-to-date information and assistance to people on Medicare.

California State University
Fullerton, CA

$111,920

To develop the Balance and Mobility Specialist Instructor Training Program and to train leaders State-wide for this fall prevention program.

California State University Long Beach Foundation
Long Beach, CA

$49,300

To increase the number of underserved seniors enrolled in the Senior University Computer Center's courses and assure long-term sustainability of the Center.

Camarillo Hospice
Camarillo, CA

$10,000

To provide support for the Bereavement Support and Education Program, a comprehensive bereavement counseling program consisting of individual, group, and peer support for individuals having difficulty coping with grief.

Caregivers-Volunteers Assisting the Elderly
Ventura, CA

$10,000

To provide continued support for in-home supportive services for underserved, homebound frail elderly.

Catholic Charities
Los Angeles, CA

$30,000

To expand the OASIS case management services to the underserved communities of Moorpark, Fillmore, and Piru, California.

Center for Healthy Aging
Santa Monica, CA

$76,300

To produce a manual and an interactive educational CD for community-based service providers that wish to replicate the When Mother Calls workplace caregiver education program.

Center for the Partially Sighted
Los Angeles, CA

$60,000

To support an Independent Living Skills Program which provides individualized rehabilitation training in adaptive living techniques for elders with visual impairments.

Chapman University
School of Law
Orange, CA

$50,000

To develop the Elder Law Clinical Program, secure equipment and resources to track the law cases, and provide high quality legal aid services to elders in the Orange County area.

Christmas in April
Long Beach

Long Beach, CA

$15,000

To replicate the successful model developed by Christmas in April * USA, Christmas in Long Beach uses volunteer labor and an in-kind donation program to provide home repairs for the elderly and handicapped living on fixed incomes.

City of Long Beach
Long Beach, CA

$100,000

To provide continued support of the Senior Links to Independent Living pilot project, which promotes early identification and referral of at-risk seniors by community gatekeepers in order to link those seniors with resources and promote independent living.

Community Partners In Caring
Santa Maria, CA

$25,000

To develop a program which will serve frail, ill, disabled, and grieving adults and their caregivers by providing information, referral and assistance.

Didi Hirsch Community Mental Health Center
Culver City, CA

$15,000

To support the scholarship project, which will allow low-income seniors with Alzheimer's or other mental illnesses to participate in the Older Adult Day Services and provide support services to caregivers.

ElderHelp of San Diego
San Diego, CA

$35,000

To develop an outreach project that will provide supportive services, education and referral for adult children caring for their aging parents.

Family Caregiver Alliance
San Francisco, CA

$260,000

To establish and operate a National Center on Caregiving.

Family Service Agency of Santa Barbara
Santa Barbara, CA

$30,000

To support the Homemaker and Independent Living Programs for low income elders.

Family Service Association of Western Riverside County
Riverside, CA

$25,000

To provide outreach and marketing for the adult day health care program.

Heart Touch Project
Venice, CA

$10,000

To develop a massage therapy program for the elderly and to train providers on the unique needs of frail elders and those in nursing homes.

Hospice of Pasadena, Inc.
Pasadena, CA

$10,000

To strengthen existing outreach and hospice programs by increasing number of clients served, with an emphasis on underserved populations.

International City Theatre
Long Beach, CA

$72,375

To provide outreach and improved accessibility for low income seniors in the greater Long Beach community.

International Documentary Association
Santa Monica, CA

$100,000

To produce a public television documentary profiling the lives of centenarians - The Living Century.

Irvine Adult Day Health Services, Inc.
Irvine, CA

$12,480

To provide additional services from a licensed occupational therapist and a trained physical therapy aide.

Jewish Family and Children's Service
Long Beach, CA

$5,180

To support presentations on the work of JFCS' Older Adult Services staff at the national meetings of the American Society on Aging.

Jewish Free Loan Association
Los Angeles, CA

$50,000

To establish the Short-term Home Healthcare Loan Fund for the benefit of those individuals and families who bear the expense of providing home healthcare to frail elderly.

Korean Health Education, Information and Referral Center
Los Angeles, CA

$84,575

To establish an Adult Day Health Care Center and expand adult day health care services for Korean American frail elderly and developmentally disabled in Los Angeles County.

Long Term Care Services of Ventura County, Inc.
Ventura, CA

$15,000

To support training and recruitment efforts for the Long Term Care Ombudsman Program.

Los Amigos Research and Education Institute, Inc.
Downey, CA

$97,700

To establish a three-year pilot program at Rancho Los Amigos National Rehabilitation Center to reduce falls in adult day health clients who have physical and/or memory impairment.

Los Angeles Free Clinic
Los Angeles, CA

$32,300

To provide dental services and a case management program for low-income elders.

Memorial Medical Center Foundation
Long Beach, CA
$114,400
To develop a Chronic Disease Self-Management Program which will improve the lives and health of patients with chronic illness and reduce the overall health care costs.

National Academy of Sciences Washington, DC
$75,000
To support a study of the health and safety needs of older workers over the next 20-30 years.

The National Council on The Aging
Washington, DC
$100,000
To support the You're Entitled, National Service Initiative with which millions of older seniors and their caregivers will quickly and easily learn about and obtain all of the public benefits to which they are entitled on the Internet at www.benefitscheckup.org

National Senior Citizens Law Center
Los Angeles, CA
$101,200
To provide education and advocacy on the implementation of new nursing home legislation in California.

Olive View-UCLA Medical Center Foundation
Sylmar, CA
$17,600
To support the Arthritis Empowerment Program/ Programa Tomando El Dominio Sobre La Artritis, a health education program to improve the quality of life for Spanish speaking patients with arthritis in the northeast San Fernando Valley.

Oregon Death With Dignity
Portland, OR
$50,000
To support programs that encourage pain management and end of life care education, as well as to monitor the implementation of the Oregon Death With Dignity law.

Partners in Care Foundation
Burbank, CA
$100,000
To support the development of Adult Day Health Centers in Lancaster and Santa Clarita, California.

Providence Saint Joseph Foundation
Burbank, CA
$65,000
To expand the Senior Outreach Program to provide additional case management services for low income elders in the San Fernando Valley.

Providence Speech and Hearing Center
Orange, CA
$25,000
To provide hearing assessments and hearing aids to low income seniors.

Robert F. Kennedy Medical Center Foundation
Hawthorne, CA
$50,000
To support the Lifetime Independence for the Frail Elderly Program, which offers supportive services to seniors that enhance their quality of life and their ability to live independently.

Rural Elders, Inc.
Weed, CA
$80,000
To develop of dementia-specific health promotion and disease prevention education programs for the professional and lay communities.

Saint Barnabas Senior Center of Los Angeles
Los Angeles, CA
$50,000
To expand the Day Care Resource Center and Alzheimer's Disease Diagnostic and Treatment Center to include and Adult Day Health Care program.

Saint Joseph Center
Venice, CA
$10,000
To support the Senior Outreach Program for homeless and homebound elders.

San Diego State University Foundation
San Diego, CA
$29,516
To support the Project Independence: Functional Fitness in Older Adults Pilot, to improve fitness, prevent osteoporosis and prevent falls in the elderly.

San Francisco Adult Day Services Association
San Francisco, CA
$50,000
To support a study on the effectiveness of adult day services.

Senior Meals and Services
Garden Grove, CA
$49,200
To provide case management services for the frail elderly.

STOP-GAP
Santa Ana, CA
$24,375
To develop a new program which will feature a 3-part series of customized touring plays that creatively addresses issues of interest and concern to seniors.

The Center for Aging Resources
Pasadena, CA
$132,100
To provide a Clinical Mental Health Outreach and Treatment Program for difficult to reach elders.

The Hospice Foundation
Torrance, CA
$50,000
To support an End of Life Education and Training Project designed to initiate discussions on end of life issues and introduce palliative care principles to residents of continuing care facilities nearing the end of their lives.

Tri-City Hospital Foundation
Oceanside, CA
$78,000
To develop Positive Alternatives for Living Life, a program designed to improve the health and quality of life of aging persons in North San Diego County who are living with chronic, disabling, and life-threatening conditions.

University of California, Irvine
Orange, CA
$42,685
To support a national conference on the medical aspects of elder abuse. The conference will bring together leading experts to discuss identification, examination, documentation, treatment, reporting, prevention, and medical response to elder abuse.

Visiting Nurse Service of New York
New York, NY
$67,000
To implement a model project in Southern California using a set of indicators to identify elder friendly communities that welcome and support individuals who wish to age in place.

Voices of Healing
San Rafael, CA
$8,600
To produce and distribute music therapy videos to seniors in skilled nursing facilities.

Volunteers of America
Long Beach, CA
$35,000
To develop N.I.C.E., a nutrition and service program for Cambodian elders in the Long Beach area.

Young at Heart Project
Santa Cruz, CA
$15,000
To support a volunteer program bringing live music performances into nursing homes and senior residential facilities.

Young at Heart Project
Santa Cruz, CA
$20,000
To replicate the volunteer program bringing live music performances into nursing homes and senior residential facilities in Santa Barbara County.

YWCA of San Gabriel Valley
West Covina, CA
$50,000
To expand the Urgency Case Management Program for seniors in need of in-home assessment and support services who reside in the San Gabriel Valley.